7.2.1 Describe two best practices successfully implemented by the Institution as per NAAC format provided in the Manual.

Best Practise - I

Title of the Practice:

A refreshing and reinforce experiential and relational learning also exploring the knowledge through Departmental tours for Students.

Objectives of the Practice

1. To explore the knowledge and make aware of the subjects in a practical way which can be accomplished through Departmental Tours/Trips.
2. It gives joy and helps student to discover new places and help them interact, experience and gain information theoretically and practically.
3. To provide an opportunity for students to experience group activities and understand the importance of social relationships.
4. It helps improving learning along with developing skills of critical thinking, teamwork, and interactive and conceptual learning.
5. To create a logical coherence throughout the trip.
6. To emphasis on the act of building a greater bond between students and teachers.

The Context

The trips include both staff and academic students. As students don't have any preconceived concepts about how to experience places and its related knowledge for their academic growth, HODs arrange Departmental tours. Nowadays students are more imaginative and they strive to be more informative through interesting tasks by visually experiencing the activities in a chosen environment.

The Practice:

The trips are clearly identified by each of the departmental HODs and planned and ten permission is sought at least one month in advance.

To make familiar with the new location, with the industry and also to merge the gap between classroom and the related industry. As we have different departments in our College, every department make sure to arrange a separate trip every year which benefits the students a lot.

Department of English and Department of Marathi arranged a One Day Trip to Mumbai Gharapuri Island, Mumbai Darsan. Department of History too efforts for organising a One Day Trip to Nasik Ancient Pandavleni. Department of Economics arranged a One Day Trip to Agro Industry, Nisarg Nirmal Agro, Avare.

The students of Commerce were accompanied by faculty to eminent financial organizations of National importance like the Reserve Bank of India to impress upon them the importance of the working of these organizations and the future prospects that these institutions could hold in shaping their careers. BSCIT Department put their efforts in arranging a One Day trip to Netwin System and Software Pvt. Ltd in Nasik Industry Visit to

Evidence of success

- Students learnt the methods of Interactive Learning by engaging themselves in group discussions.
- Student when visits a new place he tries to figure out the Cultural Observations.
