Every year we collect feedback from the students as they are the most important stakeholders of the institute. Seeking their feedback is important for the progress of the institute. This year the feedback forms were distributed among the students and same were collected back during 13th March, 2019 to 22nd March, 2019.

The feedback committee expressed their satisfaction over the successful completion of the certificate courses run by all the departments.

analysed and orally discussed in detail. The committee found that the majority of the students were highly satisfied with the performance of the faculties.

The analysis of the feedback was informally communicated to the staff members for the further improvements.

The same was conveyed to the college authorities and IQAC.
